

Week 1 is in now in the book. Hopefully, you were able to go in and work in all courses and be on or ahead of pace. Remember, this program is meant for our students to stay on or ahead of pace each week (psss....if ahead, then that means that you could possibly have a major jump start on winter break ☺)

This week we have our state mandated start to the F.A.S.T. testing. Please make sure that you sign up using the sign up sent to you from Ms. Harris. This year testing is mandatory during all three testing windows. If you cannot come in to test, please let Ms. Harris know. If you miss any of the testing windows, then we will need to discuss alternate enrollment options.
